10TH ANNUAL IN Concert WITH Caminar

Our 2020 Headliner

With a voice that stirs the soul and hands that effortlessly glide over the keys, Sheléa represents a return to true artistry that has garnered much attention and adoration from legends throughout the music industry. Her sultry sound is an exciting oasis in an age of auto-tune. Blending traditional pop, jazz, R&B, and soul, Sheléa brings a contemporary edge to classics and a classic touch to contemporary pop standards.

In 2012, Sheléa was invited to perform at the White House to honor composers Burt Bacharach and Hal David with the Gershwin Prize. In 2016, Sheléa returned to the White House to perform with Anthony Hamilton as part of PBS' Smithsonian Salute to Ray Charles. That same year, Sheléa stepped in front of the camera making her acting debut in the HBO Emmy-nominated film All the Way. In 2017, Sheléa had the distinct honor of being selected by Quincy Jones to be the first vocalist for his jazz club Q's Bar and Lounge at the Palazzo Versace Dubai where she performed a month-long residency.

In March 2019, Sheléa starred on PBS, joined by special guests David Foster and Greg Phillinganes, in the concert special QUINCY JONES PRESENTS: SHELÉA. Also in March, Sheléa released her third album Pretty World: Through the Eyes of Alan and Marilyn Bergman. The album consists of 11 songs handpicked by the Bergmans, including several never-before released and a new arrangement of "Make Me Rainbows." Sheléa starred as Dorinda Clark Cole in Lifetime's 2020 biopic, The Clark Sisters: The First Ladies of Gospel, based on the lives and careers of the iconic gospel group The Clark Sisters.
